

“The Dialogue of Civilizations and Cultures”

The Second International Peer-Reviewed Conference of the Faculty of Arts

2016/4/28 – 26

The conference seeks to initiate a dialogue among people across civilizations and cultures on a basis of mutual respect, appreciation of other people’s opinions, repudiation of sectarianism and dissemination of the spirit of cooperation and tolerance. It will, therefore, contribute to reinforcing the values of dialogue and coexistence at all levels.

Themes

First Theme; Religious Dialogue

- Religious Tolerance in Islam
- Religious coexistence in Islamic History
- Role of Amman Message in Religious and Cultural Dialogue

Second Theme: Globalization

- Arab– Western Dialogue
- Dialogue in Contemporary Arab Literature and Thought
- Role of International Organizations in Enhancing International Dialogue

Third Theme: Media

- Role of Official Media in the Cultural Dialogue
- Role of Jordanian Political Discourse in the Cultural Dialogue
- Role of Social Media in the Cultural Dialogue

Fourth Theme; Organizations

- Role of the Hashemite family and leadership in the Cultural and Political Discourse
- Role of Academic Institutions in the Cultural and Political Discourse
- Role of Civil Societies in the Cultural and Political Discourse

Targeted Groups

- University professors
- Researchers and thinkers
- Theologians

Conditions of Participation

1. The paper should address one of the conference themes and topics
2. Participants should fill the participation form and send the abstract by email no later than January 14th, 2016.
3. Arabic contributions to be typed in font 14 simplifiedArabic; English ones are to be typed in font 12 Times New Roman and to be emailed no later than March 25th, 2016.
4. All papers will be peer-reviewed. Participants will be informed of the results no later than March 1st, 2016.
5. Each participant will be given 10 minutes to present his paper in the sessions of the conference.

Important Dates to Remember

- Subscriptions and abstract submission deadline is 7/2/2016
- The deadline for submitting full research papers is 25/2/2016

Contact Information:

artaao@yahoo.com
www.ttu.edu.jo
Dr. Amal Etiwi
00962797301235