Conference Objectives:

The conference aims to stimulate scientific research, reconsider studies on cultural and civilizational dialogue, and promote critical, literary, and cultural activities. Additionally, it seeks to strengthen cultural connections among academics and researchers, benefit researchers and the scientific community by sharing the principles and methods of scientific research, and promote both universities internationally.

Location: City of Gjakova, Kosovo

Conference Themes:

1. Historical Perspectives on Civilizations and Cultural Exchange: Concepts of culture, dialogue, civilization, identity, and the challenges of contemporary culture.
2. Intercultural Communication in the Contemporary World: The role of religious, political, economic, social, and sports dialogue, and the contribution of literary, linguistic, and artistic production in facilitating communication and bridging ideas.
3. The Role of Education in Bridging Cultural Gaps: The role of universities, schools, religious and cultural institutions, international and UN organizations, and higher education institutions.
4. Challenges and Opportunities in Global Cultural Integration: The role of scholars in cultural and civilizational revival, obstacles to integration among nations, and contemporary mechanisms for promoting dialogue over conflict.
5. Impact of Technology on Cultural Dialogue: The role of scientific advancement in enhancing dialogue effectiveness, and the use of artificial intelligence to foster positive dialogues between nations.
